

Money! We can't seem to get enough of it. What if somebody made you a deal—you'd get $100 million, but you'd die in one year. Would you take it? Do you see what's more important than money? It would be foolish to take one year of riches in exchange for eternity. Jesus said: "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?"¹ Don't risk your precious soul for anything! The Bible says "Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousness delivereth from death."² All that money couldn't buy you Heaven—you need righteousness, not money, to make it.

So have you prepared for eternity? Are you good enough for Heaven? The Bible says God will one day judge the world in righteousness³, so we expect bad people like Hitler will get the justice they've earned, and also murderers and adulterers, but what about you? You probably haven't killed anyone, but have you had those types of feelings? The Bible says "Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ... no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him."⁴ And the same way, Jesus said if you've even looked at somebody (other than a spouse) with lust, you've committed adultery already in your heart.⁵ Murder and adultery begin in the heart, and the God who made this Universe is so holy he will judge the thoughts of your heart. There are other sins too, like using God's name in vain (which he will judge⁶), lying (have you ever?) and drunkenness. Yet, one sin is worse than all of these, even murder.

When asked what the greatest law was, Jesus said: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment"⁷—to love God! So if this is the greatest commandment, then what is the greatest sin? The worst possible sin is to break the the greatest commandment! Have you always loved God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength, above everything? Would you curse God for $100 million? Do you love money more than God? He gives you the air you breathe, and he desires your love and worship. Have you given him the glory he deserves? What if God asked you, "Why should I let you into my Heaven?"

Because he's good? No, because God is holy and good, he must punish sin—hatred, lust, lying, and especially breaking the first and great commandment. "The soul that sinneth, it shall die."⁸ The death of your soul means eternal separation from God, and punishment forever in Hell, where Jesus says "There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."⁹ We all deserve Hell—"For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God."¹⁰ We have left God, but he loves us so much that he made a way for us to escape

Hell, while still meeting his justice. Our sin penalty had to be paid, and the only way was if somebody was willing to pay our penalty for us—to sacrifice himself for all our sins—it had to be God, come in the flesh. Isaiah predicted this hundreds of years in advance: “But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.”¹¹ Jesus Christ was born to die, and suffered for all the sins of mankind. He was buried, and rose again in victory. His sacrifice was the payment for all your sins, and is the only way you can make it into Heaven. It is a free gift of Jesus Christ: “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not

“For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”¹³ Will you accept this gift? Turn to Christ to save you from your sins: “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.”¹⁴ If you are ready to trust in Jesus alone to save you, you can call out to God in prayer, confessing your sins, and asking Jesus to save you. All you can do is humble yourself before God, as the publican who beat upon his chest and cried, “God be merciful to me a sinner”¹⁵ “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”¹⁶
